Sub: Special casual leave (one day)-Lok Sabha Election 2019.

Employees enrolled as voters in a constituency but having offices in another constituency are eligible to a day's special casual leave on the day of election in their home constituency to enable them to exercise their franchise if the offices are not closed on that day.

Accordingly, I am directed to convey that for the forth coming Lok Sabha Election, employees may submit their application through proper channel, for special casual leave on the day of election in their constituency, if it falls on working day of the University.
