The formal session started at 4.30 pm in the conference hall of the Department of Social Work, CUTN. The programme started with the Tamil Thai Vazhthu. The welcome address was given by Prof. Sigamani P. (Head, Department of Social Work). He welcomed the presidential presence of the program, Prof. M Krishnan (Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, CUTN) and also other dignitaries including Prof. Sulochana Shekhar (Registrar of Central University of Tamil Nadu), SVSS Narayana Raju, Prof. A. Selvam (Dean of student welfare), Prof. N. Gopalan (Head of the Department of Epidemiology and Public Health) to felicitate the programme. During the speech he pointed out various NSSO Reports related to drug abuse and addiction. He explained the statistics of the number of global consumers of tobacco growing by 50 thousand per year in the case of India which is the 2nd largest consumer of tobacco products. He concluded by stating that production and consumption of tobacco not only affects people but also the environment because of which UNO proclaimed "Protect the environment" as the theme for Anti-Tobacco Day 2022.

Prof. M. Krishnan, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, CUTN addressed the meeting by remarking on the first celebration of World No-Tobacco Day in 1987 by UNO with its global partners. Then he referred to reports that approximately 18 lakh people are affected by tobacco and about 100 lakh people through passive smoking. In relation to this, he shared a short story about the adverse effects of passive smoking. The presidential address concluded with him mentioning the success of the previously held two-day national conference "Convergence 2022" and its importance for CUTN.

Then the session was handed over to Prof. Sulochana Shekar (Registrar, CUTN) for delivering the felicitation address. In her speech, she spoke about how to say no to not only tobacco but also to all similar addictive and dangerous substances. The speech mentioned several reports about tobacco production and deforestation. Reports showed that 4 million trees were cut per year for the manufacturing of tobacco products and in some European countries these companies pay more tax and have more CSR. Her speech concluded with proclaiming that all CUTN faculties and students should join the No Tobacco campaign for a healthy future.

The next person who delivered felicitation was Prof. SVSS Narayana Raju. He started with a Sanskrit slogan about promoting confidence and belief in oneself with which a person wouldn't depend on drugs. He concluded the speech by promoting all the young fellows to be aware of the harmfulness of tobacco products. Prof. A Selvam (Dean of Students' Welfare, head, Head of Department of English Studies) spoke next. His speech made the audience aware that each cigarette reduces a person's life span by seven. He also added that an increasing trend of smoking among youngsters will affect future generation as well. The last person to speak was Prof. N. Gopalan, Head of the Department of EPH who mentioned various statistical figures related to tobacco consumption.

Towards the end of the day, the prize distribution ceremony was carried out. All the prize winners were awarded certificates of excellence. Prof. M. Krishnan, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, CUTN, and other dignitaries performed this following which the prize-winning videos were screened in front of the audience. The vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Chittaranjan Subudhi, faculty coordinator, Anti-Tobacco Cell. Firstly, he thanked Prof. M. Krishnan, Honourable Vice Chancellor, CUTN, for his wonderful support and team leadership for the university. He also thanked all others present for giving their valuable time including faculty members, technical staff, students, etc. were mentioned in the speech. The overall formal meeting winded up at 6.00 pm with the National Anthem and was followed by refreshments.
