Central University of Tamil Nadu

The School of Education and Training, Department of Education at the Central University of Tamil Nadu successfully conducted a One-Day International Conference on Challenges in Language Education. The event witnessed an overwhelming response from educators, researchers, and experts from various institutions around the world.

Nearly 100 participants attended the one-day conference, including distinguished delegates from Malaysia. The conference, which aimed to address the major challenges faced in Language Education, commenced with an inaugural ceremony graced by the presence of the esteemed Vice Chancellor, Prof. M. Krishnan.

Prof. Krishnan inaugurated the International conference and launched a book written by one of the International participants from Malaysia A Sharan Suklam.

Dr. Illangumaran Sivanandhan, Senior Lecturer from the University of Pendidikan Sultan Idris, Malaysia, Prof. William Dharmaraja from Manonmaniam Sundarnar University and Prof. Ramanujam Meganathan from NCERT, New Delhi shared their expertise through special lectures, enriching the conference with their insights.

This year's conference focused on examining the challenges and opportunities in language learning at schools and emphasized the crucial role of teachers in addressing these challenges. The sessions encompassed diverse aspects such as innovative pedagogical practices, technology integration, assessment strategies, and Inclusive Language Education.
