13.	Discussion of Curriculum and syllabus -Ph.D. Tamil	The Committee recommended the relaxation to the early submission of Synopsis & Thesis (Ph.D. Ordinance 22.0.1). There is no one journal related with our discipline (Tamil) in SCOPUS /Web of science indexed journals . So, that the committee recommended the publication from UGC care listed Journals/ Peer Reviewed journals to the early submission of Synopsis & Thesis.
14.	Discussion of Curriculum and syllabus as per NEP -2020	Department of Tamil serves to P.G, Ph.D. Programmes in Tamil teaches language courses to iMSc., iM.A, BPA, & BSc.B.Ed and also offer Open Elective (OE) to other departments. Hence, the Board recommends to recruitment for Two (2) numbers of Tamil faculty in the position of Assistant Professor and one (1) Sanskrit faculty in the position of Assistant Professor based on the work load.
15.	Discussed about the exit of students after completion of one year in M.A Classical Tamil Studies	If the students exits/ leaves the course after the competition of one year, his/her degree will be considered as PG Diploma in Classical Tamil Studies. The credits will be recorded or transfered in the national academic Bank for the one year PG Diploma in Classical Tamil studies.
